OVER THE PAST FEW MONTHS BEACON LIGHTS has been running ads soliciting financial support from the Protestant Reformed community. The magazine staff is pleased and thankful to have received sufficient funds to cover our projected budget deficit for this year. Our thanks go to everyone who has generously contributed to the deficit drive. May God continue to bless this work as we seek to represent and serve the young people of our denomination. - Beacon Lights staff

REGISTER NOW for the 2024 Young People's Convention hosted by Cornerstone and Peace PRC! Registration closes on March 31, so only 2 weeks remain! We are looking forward to a great week at camp Cedarmore in Kentucky from August 5 - 9, 2024. Get started at <http://prcconvention.com/registration/>. Note that the registration process includes waivers, so parents should register for their young people who are minors. If you have any questions, reach out to registration@prcconvention.com

APRIL 23 - The Society for PR Special Education invites you to a speech by Prof. Douglas Kuiper titled, "Autism Spectrum Disorder: Children in our Schools and Churches" at 7pm at Georgetown PR Church. Please save the date for the speech and a dessert buffet and fellowship afterward! The speech will also be live streamed.

WA YA RETREAT 2024: The Retreat will be held for ages 18-30 from July 1st through July 4th, 2024. The theme will be "Love as Brethren-Our Relationship with Fellow Believers." Registration for the retreat is open! Registration will remain open until the end of March, or until it is full. To register, go to <https://lyndenprcyaretreat.aidaform.com/registration> and submit your form. If you have any questions to ask before you sign up, please email us at lyndenprcya@gmail.com. The Lynden PRC Young Adults look forward to hosting you!
